

Job Description for Part-Time Reading & Writing Resource Teacher for 2024-2025 School Year

Qualifications:

- Bachelor of Education required
- Qualified to teach in the Primary and Junior divisions in accordance with Ministry of Education Regulations;
- Special Education Specialist and/or Reading Specialist AQs (or equivalent) are desired;
- Ontario College of Teachers' Certificate of Qualification;
- A Master of Education is an asset

Job Description:

- Providing direct instruction to students who require resource support primarily in Reading and Writing (K-4);
- Thorough understanding and experience teaching through the lens of the 'Science of Reading' required;
- Working knowledge of Orton-Gillingham-based programs (Barton system or equivalent), as well as Structured Word Inquiry knowledge, an asset;
- Helping teachers plan and carry out accommodations and modified programming for their students in accordance with their IEPs;
- Weekly meetings with the Director of Special Education and collaborating on developing programming for the students requiring resource and enrichment support;
- Locating resources for classroom teachers;
- Collaborating with teachers regarding their students and suggesting strategies and interventions, as well as modeling lessons with accommodations in mind;
- Writing resource report cards;
- Providing students with a 'Quiet Room' for assessments and classwork

Salary Commensurate with Education and Experience ($40,000.00-$90,000.00 per year)

Benefits: Paid vacation, paid sick leave

Preferred Experience: 2+ Years' Experience

Application Instructions: If interested, please email a cover letter and resume to teach@theojcs.ca, attention Principal, Keren Gordon. Only applicants who are being actively considered will be contacted.